

POLITICAL CIRCLES

In England Excited Over the Gladstone Rumors.

HAS THE AGED PREMIER RESIGNED?

In the All Important Question—Reports That Seem to Come With Authority—Various Reasons Given for the Action—Statement That the Resignation Will Take Place on Easter and That Earl Spencer Has Accepted the Offer.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—The political world is once more greatly agitated by renewed rumors to the effect that Mr. Gladstone intends to retire from office. Of course the frequency with which these reports have been circulated of late has done much to discount any effect which they might have, but every time a new report concerning Mr. Gladstone's intention to retire from the leadership of the Liberal party is put in circulation, there seems to be a positive panic among his most loyal followers, and a corresponding feeling of encouragement among the enemies of the great English statesman and his policy. The latest scare news is furnished by the Edinburgh Evening News, which announces upon what it classes as reliable authority the fact that Mr. Gladstone has resigned the premiership, but the Evening News adds he will retain his seat in the cabinet and will also continue to represent Midlothian in the house of commons.

Naturally this report, apparently based on something more than mere political rumor, has caused the greatest excitement in political circles, and is causing a great and hurried exchange of telegrams between the great leaders and their intimate advisers. Strange to say after so many details have been put in circulation in connection with the grand old man, the present report that he has actually tendered his resignation, or that he intends to take such action during the present week, is obtaining general credence.

Inquiries made hastily in official circles shortly after the Evening News, of Edinburgh, circulated its reports shows that there are many people in official circles who believe that the report is undoubtedly based on fact. Mr. T. P. O'Connor, M. P., writing to the Evening News, says in connection with the rumor, that Mr. Gladstone has resigned and apparently tending to confirm the report: "For some time, something like a panic has existed among his supporters in the lobby. Yesterday evening the rumor was current that his resignation was to be expected during the course of the week. Competent authority gives his eye-witness as the actual reason for his resignation, but the situation is further aggravated by the position of certain members of the cabinet with reference to the naval programme.

"The premier had to face the possibility of Earl Spencer's (the first lord of the admiralty) resigning.

"The catarrh in the premier's eye is not yet ripe for operation, but when it occurs he must spend six weeks in darkness.

"Nobody has the least idea what any day may bring forth; my own opinion is that Mr. Gladstone will refuse to leave the ship."

The Associated Press correspondent, as soon as the rumor of Mr. Gladstone's resignation became known, placed himself in communication with the secretary of the premier, who informed the Associated Press that the statements made by the Edinburgh Evening News were entirely unauthorized. When questioned as to their accuracy, Mr. Gladstone's secretary refused to give a direct answer, simply reiterating his former statement that the Evening News had no authorization to make the statements which have caused so much excitement in political circles.

It is now recalled that some astonishment was caused on Saturday last by the fact that the earl of Rosebery, secretary of state for foreign affairs, while on his way to visit the prince and princess of Wales at Sandringham, was hurriedly called back to the foreign affairs by a dispatch which was handed to him at Newmarket. The earl of Rosebery returned to London by a special train and went immediately to the foreign office. The excuse given out for this sudden change of intentions upon the part of the secretary was that his hurried return was due to a cabinet consultation being necessary in view of the defeats sustained by the sailors of the British war ships Raleigh and Widgown on the Gambian coast of Africa. It is now stated, however, that the return of the earl of Rosebery was due to an important announcement made by Mr. Gladstone to one of the cabinet ministers, at which it is said that this announcement practically amounted to a statement that he had decided to forward his resignation to her majesty. In view of the many previous reports of a similar nature which have been circulated in connection with Mr. Gladstone, there are many people who believe that there has been in the other similar reports.

The people are reminding each other of Mr. Gladstone's great age, of his failing eye sight, and of the bitter attacks made upon him by newspapers which had previously warmly supported him, as a result of his failure to appeal to the sympathies of those who were clamoring for the abolition of the house of lords by making a determined attack upon that institution when the amendments of the peers to the popular employers liability bill and to the parish council bill were taken up in the house of commons. An intimate friend of Mr. Gladstone has been quoted as saying that the premier was deeply affected at the criticisms leveled at him by his friends and that he is apparently impressed with the belief that the liberals are ungrateful and that his best course under all the circumstances of the case is to resign the premiership. This seems to be about the situation of affairs, and apparently it will so remain until a definite announcement is made by Mr. Gladstone himself. The queen is now in London and, therefore, is able to consult with the ministers more freely than she would at Osborne, and it is expected that something definite in regard to Mr. Gladstone's intentions will very shortly be known.

THE QUEEN WAS DRUNK.

And This Was the Woman That President Cleveland Wanted to Restore to the Throne.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 27.—Decidedly the most racy chapter in the bulky volume of Hawaiian testimony is Lieutenant Lucien Young's description of the last days of the monarchy. Lieutenant Young is an officer of the Boston, and attended the closing ceremonies of the Hawaiian parliament in full uniform and in an official capacity at the request of Capt. Wilcox. Lieutenant Young's description of the scene is picturesque in the extreme. He said:

"I was shown a seat in the legislative hall, a little to the left and in front of the rostrum, where the speaker used to sit, and which the queen used when she read her proclamation. I believe it was about the funniest affair I ever saw in my life—a circus.

"The queen looked at me rather savagely and did not return my salutation with any cordiality at all. I noticed that she acted in a peculiar way.

"First when she was reading her proclamation I thought she had a little stage fright, but in the reception room I saw that she was under the influence of a stimulant, in fact she was drunk. There is no question in my mind about it at all."

STEELE MACKAY'S FUNERAL.

Roland Reed Delivers an Eulogy Over the Body of the Dead Dramatist.

Barron also spoke, and musical selections were rendered by members of the profession. The body will be taken to-morrow by special train to New York, where the interment will take place. The services to-day were attended by many people noted in theatrical circles. The honorary pall bearers were Professor Herrmann, Elwyn A. Barron, Roland Reed, James Barton Key, Louis Massoon, Joseph Holland and Milward Adams.

CHIEF ARTHUR'S WEALTH. Tax Duplicates Show that He is Worth Over $85,000.

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 27.—The agitation of the Des Moines, Iowa, Knights of Labor regarding the property upon which Chief Engineer P. M. Arthur pays taxes in Cleveland, have given rise to the inquiry as to how much property is owned by Mr. Arthur in this city. An investigation of the tax duplicate for 1893 at the county court house shows that last year Mr. Arthur paid taxes upon real estate upon a listed valuation of $46,050. The taxable valuation of property is about 60 per cent of its value. This would make Mr. Arthur's estate worth about $76,750. Mr. Arthur's personal estate was assessed at $8,150 which includes of course his household effects and whatever else personal property he has listed.

THE COUGHLIN TRIAL.

Judge Wing Bitterly Attacks Mrs. Foy, and Her Husband Enjoys It.

CHICAGO, Feb. 27.—No immediate action will be taken as to the charges of attempted bribery of the Coughlin jury. An investigation is in progress. Judge Wing in his speech to-day in the Coughlin trial made a bitter attack on Mrs. Foy. Sitting within the enclosure, next to old Dennis Coughlin, father of the prisoner, was the woman's husband, Andrew Foy. He seemed to enjoy the caustic comments of which his wife was the victim. Foy is a daily attendant at the trial.

TWENTY SHILLINGS.

The Damage Awarded Victoria Woodhull Against the British Museum.

LONDON, Feb. 27.—In the queen's British division of the high court of justice in the case of Mrs. John Woodhull Martin (Victoria Woodhull) against the trustees of the British museum, the jury after two hours absence found that the matter contained in the law books in the British museum relating to the Beecher Tilton trial complained of by Mrs. Martin was libellous, though the defendants and their agents acted upon the bona fide belief that they were discharging their statutory powers and duties, and did not know the books were libellous. They were not guilty of negligence, but they did not discharge their duty with proper care and caution and the judgment of the jury was that they be assessed damages to the amount of twenty shillings. The point of law will be further considered.

SENSATIONAL STORY.

Report of a Fight Between German and Russian Soldiers.

MOSCOW, Feb. 27.—A sensational story is current in military circles here, that a fight has taken place on the Russo-German frontier between a detachment of Russian dragoons and a number of Prussian uhlans. Several are reported to have been killed on both sides. The Russian officers in this city who have been questioned on the subject decline to specify what either of the regiments are reported to have suffered saying that they do not wish to cause international complications. The fracas arose out of the fact, it is claimed, that Prussian uhlans were using the Russian eagle fixed to the frontier post as a target.

What Will Do It?

Medical writers claim that the successful remedy for nasal catarrh must be non-irritating, easy of application and one that will reach the remote sores and ulcerated surfaces. The history of the efforts to treat catarrh is proof positive that only one remedy has completely met these conditions and that is Ely's Cream Balm. This safe and pleasant remedy has mastered catarrh as nothing else has ever done, and both physicians and patients freely concede this fact. Our druggists keep it.
